Current music: BNL - Call and Answer

it's payback time...

seen in a locked post by chrissmari, from alex_ion in jameth (how many generations of meta is that?)

"Hello, I am the internet. I do your shopping, pay your bills, and keep you in contact with your friends. I give you recipes! I teach you things about different nations. What do I ask for in return? Nothing. Well, times are changing. I want you to rid me of furrries. All of them. Even the friendly ones. Fursecution now, fursecution tomorrow, fursecution FOREVER! You have to. I even fucking get you off, even the people who like to see women pee in mens' mouths! So please, do me a favor: DESTROY ALL FURRIES.

Love, internets."

Blink Furrries? I'm confused. But hey, I just realized people in this community have kickass taste in music!

...ah. Maybe I'm twisted, but I see nothing horribly wrong with this. Not my cup of tea, no, but no big deal. Personally, I'm with cpip down there.

Oh, I feel the same way. Actually, I don't care what you do as long as you're not hurting anyone and everyone is consenting. Just giving definitions to those who ask. It's what comes of being the child of teachers, I think.

Aha, I thought it was Jameth himself. (Whom I know only by rep, mind.) Color me unclear on the chain of events! We're all incestuous online these days, you may notice... ;)

Someone will have to explain to me sometime what makes the furies worse than the vores, the zoophiles, the scats, NAMBLA, the KKK, and whatever else haunts the 'Net...

Might wanna fix that link - you have it pointing to <http://www.livejournal.com/community/metaquotes/www.voraphile.com/whatis.html> which doesn't quite work.

yeah, what justapieceofme said... it's odd how so many people can get enough of a grasp on HTML to be able to use an HREF link, but forget that they need to include the http:// protocol if they're linking to a different domain.

Or, more correctly, Vores.

It's not really that they're "worse", but most of the things you mention there are very obviously bad. You won't usually find semi-intelligent people defending the KKK saying "they're not doing any harm, they just want to express their opinions and burn a few crosses". And even those that don't know a whole lot about NAMBLA usually know enough to understand that they're bad. But the furry plague, in some ways, is more subtle. Those that only know a little may say "what's the big deal, they just have an unusual fantasy life". Most of the things you mention have had strong opposition for some time, and it's hard for them to slip into our ranks unnoticed. This call to arms is because the furry invasion is, relatively speaking, new-ish, and they're sneaking into every little nook and cranny they can find.

All right.

So tell this person who "only knows a little" what makes them worse than the scats, the vores, the Golden Shower people, the clunkies, the foot fetishists, the all-body latex fetishists, the folks who collect images of models sneezing, or anyone else with a weird kink?
